

TANZWERKSTATT EUROPA

WORKSHOPS & PERFORMANCES
JULY 28 - AUGUST 7, 2020
MUNICH

Call for Open Stage – Who’s next?

Every summer, highly promising dancers and choreographers from throughout the world come to Munich to train and test their own choreographic material in TANZWERKSTATT EUROPA’s various workshops.

You are doing a workshop at TANZWERKSTATT EUROPA and have finished choreographic material that you would like to show? In this Open Stage, you are given the opportunity to show your piece or choreographic material to the Munich’s audience, as well as all the artists and participants taking part!

Your work shouldn’t be longer than 10 minutes. You are participating in TANZWERKSTATT EUROPA. The team of JOINT ADVENTURES will make the selection. The Open Stage will take place on August 2, 2020, 20.30 H, at the Muffathalle.

What we offer:

- Participation at a TANZWERKSTATT EUROPA workshop free of charge
 - Rehearsal studio for your preparation (according to availability)
 - Per diems for a maximum of five days
 - Festival pass for the TANZWERKSTATT EUROPA events
 - Support for finding private accommodations in Munich
- Support in research/applying for travel grants, visa applications, etc.

We are looking forward to your application per e-mail with a short biography, relevant video link as well as a technical rider. Deadline: May 11, 2020. Please direct your application to: a.avila-fischer@jointadventures.net

Preview Workshop program 2020

For professional dancers and performers Iñaki Azpillaga, Mette Ingvartsen, Jan Martens, Virginie Roy, Frédéric Tavernini and Chiang-Mei Wang, among others, will teach 5-day choreographic intensive or 10-day workshops. The new director of the CNDC d’Angers, Noé Soulier, will give a masterclass. Also on the program: Gaga/Dancers with Bosmat Nossan, Contact Improvisation with Charlie Morrissey and Fighting Monkey with Natalia Pieczuro. More are to come!